

ABOUT MAUREEN

Maureen is a devoted teacher with extensive experience both in the classroom and in a one-to-one setting. Maureen holds a Master of Science degree in Special Education and a Master of Science in Elementary Education from Brooklyn College. She received her Reading Recovery certification from New York University.

Throughout her 30-year career, she has taught kindergarten through fifth grade in both general education and special education settings. She has served as an academic interventionist and has mentored new teachers, student teachers and literacy interns.

Currently, Maureen is teaching in the South Orange-Maplewood School district as an Evidence Based Reading specialist. She supports students in their literacy journeys, utilizing Orton Gillingham methods. While Maureen is considered a literacy specialist, she also has experience supporting students K-3 in mathematics as well.

degrees & certifications:

- Master of Science in Special Education, Brooklyn College
- Master of Science in Elementary Education, Brooklyn College
- New York State Certification K-5
- New Jersey Special Education Certification K-12
- New Jersey General Education Certification K-5

specialty training:

- Orton-Gillingham Training, Institution for Multi-Sensory Education
- Reading Recovery Certification, New York University