

ABOUT SAMANTHA S.

Samantha Steinberg is a passionate and dedicated educator. Samantha has a deep understanding of child development and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Human Development and Family Studies from the University of Connecticut. Upon completing her undergraduate studies, Samantha went on to earn a Master of Science degree in Elementary Education from the University of Bridgeport. Samantha graduated with a 4.0 GPA and received the Outstanding Elementary Scholarship in Mathematics Education Award. Samantha holds a teaching certification in grades K-6.

Samantha's professional journey has seen her excel as both a head classroom teacher and lower school learning specialist at schools in Westchester (The Leffell School) and New York City (Ramaz School), guiding students through their academic endeavors. Currently, Samantha is a lower school learning specialist at Hannah Senesh Community Day School. Her expertise encompasses a range of educational methodologies, including Wilson Foundations, Judith Hochman's The Writing Revolution, Jill Lauren's Whole Phonics Program, Teacher's College Reading and Writing Project, Great Leaps for Fluency, and Math in Focus - A Singapore Math Curriculum.

In her educational approach, Samantha centers her philosophy on the fundamental principle that each child learns uniquely. This principle guides her in implementing personalized learning strategies tailored to the specific needs of her students. She places great importance on integrating her students' interests into the curriculum, recognizing its vital role in enhancing engagement and fostering enthusiasm for learning. Above all, Samantha is dedicated to instilling a sense of confidence and self-assurance in her students, empowering them to embrace their abilities and thrive both academically and personally.

Beyond her role in education, Samantha's involvement in philanthropic organizations demonstrates her commitment to making a positive impact in her community. Her participation in Big Brothers Big Sisters, The Central Park Conservancy, and The Michael J. Fox Foundation for Parkinson's Disease Research highlights her compassion and desire to contribute to causes that make a difference in people's lives.

degrees & certifications:

- Bachelor of Arts, Human Development and Family Studies, University of Connecticut
- Master of Science, Elementary Education, University of Bridgeport
- Connecticut State Certification, Elementary Education (K-6)

specialty training:

- Wilson Foundations
- Judith Hochman's The Writing Revolution
- Math in Focus
- Teacher's College Reading and Writing Project
- Great Leaps
- Jill Lauren's Whole Phonics Program